"Our response to complexity is an interdisciplinary approach."

preface.

We bring experts from a wide range of disciplines together and coordinate their processes. We at Robert C. Spies Projects & Development see ourselves as an intermediary who combine individual strengths to form an integrated whole.

Our standard: A holistic approach that benefits everyone. All our activities are geared towards generating social, ecological, aesthetic and economic added value.

We are convinced that this is what sustainability means, in all its aspects. We not only think in opportunities, we are in fact planning for the future. This is our responsibility vis-à-vis our clients, cities, and municipalities, but most importantly, vis-à-vis the generations to come.

Our way of thinking and our actions are characterised by high standards in terms of quality and added value. We are innovative and forward-thinking for you, always keeping an eye on the bigger picture - cultural, ethical, and creative - in real estate and urban development.

Interdisciplinary. Intermediary. We combine technical and social skills to achieve the best possible result.

Visionary in 4 dimensions.

DEVELOPMENT CONCERNS ALL OF SOCIETY. THEREFORE, WE PURSUE A HOLISTIC VISION.

HOLISTIC

In a complex market, the occasional good idea does not have a significant impact. Therefore, we provide comprehensive advice: We consider the relevant parameters and the way they interact, and we draw consistent conclusions in order to achieve the best possible result.

INTERDISCIPLINARY

Complicated tasks necessitate specialisation. Complex tasks necessitate numerous specialists. We combine individual competences to establish professional and efficient processes.

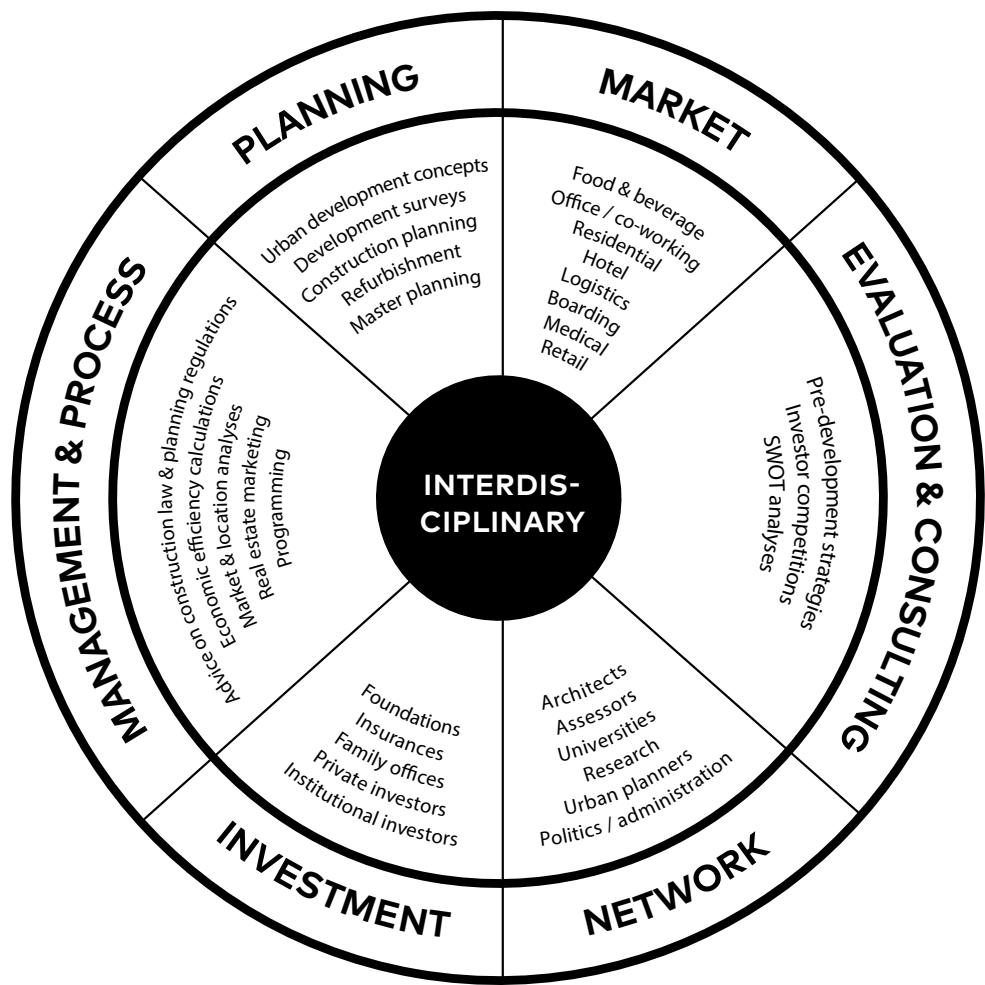

FORWARD-THINKING

For our clients, we always think one step ahead, and we prepare projections regarding true opportunities. We promptly react to trends and future issues because we anticipate developments – in order to provide sustainable advice.

SUCCESS AND ADDED VALUE

We measure sustainability by the close bond between the players who are decisive for the success of real estate projects and real estate investments. We help all of them achieve their individual goals.

Interdisciplinary: Our unique selling proposition

We pool essential disciplines and skills to ensure success.

HIGHEST LEVEL OF TECHNICAL KNOW-HOW IN DEVELOPMENT & PLANNING

Urban regions today are changing more quickly than ever – and with them, the circumstances that trigger developments change. In this situation, we offer: Commitment.

Our expertise encompasses the entire development process. This way, we offer our clients opportunities to step in exactly where they can achieve the greatest possible effect.

EXPERT FOR THE ENTRY IN NEW MARKETS

More than consultants: Ideally, Robert C. Spies assists their clients through their entire life. They decide on the direction. We provide the impulses.

We recognise investment and development potentials besides the known markets, evaluate opportunities, find possibilities for action, and open up strategic points of access to promising fields.

RIGHT ON TARGET: DEVELOP
IDEAS. EVALUATE OPPORTUNITIES.
DETERMINE THE RIGHT WAY.

HAND IN HAND WITH OUR COLLEAGUES IN SALES

At Robert C. Spies, we offer our clients the know-how of the entire consulting company.

TRENDS AND TOPICS FROM THE CORPORATE THINK TANK

Our Corporate Think Tank is a guarantor of sustainable real estate products and provides a perfect basis for viable decisions.
